2022 Poll Locations

Preliminary List Updated July 27, 2022

Information

In advance of every election, Elections Staff assess ward numbers, geography and previous voter turnout rates to assist in creating Poll Subdivisions. Each Poll Subdivision is assigned a poll where eligible electors can vote on Election Day.

In addition to Election Day Polls, one advance poll location is assigned per ward. On Election Day, one location in each ward is identified to house accessible equipment to ensure that all electors have an opportunity to vote.

How are Poll Locations chosen?

Staff assess each poll location based on criteria developed in collaboration with Facilities, AODA Specialists, and in alignment with Provincial and Federal poll location criteria. The process begins early in the year, with staff developing a list of potential poll locations based on previous poll sites and considering input from stakeholders and the community. Onsite reviews are conducted to ensure that each potential poll location meets the established criteria. Once the assessments are completed, staff determine the best option for the Poll Subdivision, and enter into a rental contract with the location.

What does the Poll Assessment include?

When staff conduct a poll assessment on a potential poll location, they are looking to ensure that the location is large enough to host a poll, that the location is accessible, and that the space (both inside and out) is suitable for a poll.

Are there concerns with schools being used as poll locations?

For the 2022 Municipal Election, both the Public and Separate School Boards have designated election day, October 24, 2022, as a Professional Activity Day. This means the majority of students will not be on site that day.

Schools may still have daycare programs running on Election Day. To ensure separation of electors and any students or staff in the building, additional greeters are hired to assist in directing voters into school poll locations and to monitor movement in key areas.

Will there be more Poll Locations announced?

Yes. In addition to the advance polls and election day polls, the City is finalizing plans to hold additional polls (see below). Information will be released as it becomes available.

Ballot On Demand Polls (Pending Finalization)

A Ballot on Demand poll has technology, an e-poll book and a printer that enables a ballot from any ward to be printed for an elector on site once eligibility and identity is verified.

This technology will allow electors to attend a designated Ballot on Demand Poll and receive their Ballot, regardless of where they live in the city.

For the 2022 Municipal Election, the City is pleased hold Ballot on Demand Polls at the following locations:

October 18, 2022	October 21, 2022
McMaster University	Hamilton Regional Indian Centre
Mohawk College	Women's Shelter System (Location TBD)
Redeemer University	Men's Shelter System (Location TBD)

- Ballot on Demand Polls will be available for students on October 18, 2022 at McMaster University, Mohawk College, and Redeemer University

Ballot on Demand Polls at Drop in Shelter Locations

- The City has been engaging with local organizations to understand barriers to voting for individuals experiencing homelessness and those living in shelters.
- To provide opportunity for voting, Polls will be set up on October 21, 2022 at Men's and Women's drop-in shelter locations for Electors in these locations to cast a ballot.
- The Elections team is working with local organizations to finalize Poll locations for these sites.

Ballot on Demand Poll at the Hamilton Regional Indian Centre

- The Elections Team is engaging with the Indigenous Community to listen and learn about past experiences and historical barriers related to the electoral process.
- We are pleased to have been invited to hold a municipal election poll at the Hamilton Regional Indian Centre on October 21, 2022.
- This poll presents an opportunity for Indigenous Electors who wish to cast a ballot to do so in a welcoming setting.
