TERMS & CONDITIONS

Requirements

Households must sign a lease or occupancy agreement prior to receipt of RGI assistance.

Every Housing Provider and every household that rents or occupies a unit in a Housing Provider's housing project must enter into a lease or in the case of a co-operative housing unit, an occupancy agreement that has the following provisions:

1. The term of the lease must not exceed one year.
2. The amount of market rent or housing charge for the unit and all other charges that the Housing Provider may impose under the HSA and/or the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006. For Co-operative Housing Providers, refer to O.Reg 367/11 s. 97 for allowable fees and charges
3. List all occupants of the unit and required signatories on the lease; including any additional persons whose occupation of the unit is agreed to subsequently by the Housing Provider
4. An appendix or separate schedule/clause that requires RGI households (in accordance with HSA and any City of Hamilton policies or local rules) to:
 - a. Complete a review of a household's continued eligibility for RGI assistance at least once in every 12-month period. The review should correspond with the anniversary date of when the household first began to receive RGI assistance (rolling reviews) or on a fixed date (fixed reviews) for all households as determined by the housing provider.
 - b. Household members whose income is to be included in the rent calculation are required to file their income tax returns annually as a condition of continued eligibility.
 - c. RGI households must provide notice of the following income changes within 30 days of their occurrence:
 - a permanent change in household composition
 - a household member is no longer a full-time student
 - a household member starts or stops receiving social assistance OW or ODSP
 - a household member receiving social assistance has a permanent increase in another source of income
