

I have the right to be heard.

I have the right to live in a home, in a neighbourhood.

I have the right to a healthy earth to live on.

I have the right to make choices.

I have the right to learn more things.

I like school because I play with the toys and I like to play in the sand and it's good to be at school and I like to play on the computer and I like the time I eat lunch and I like my teachers

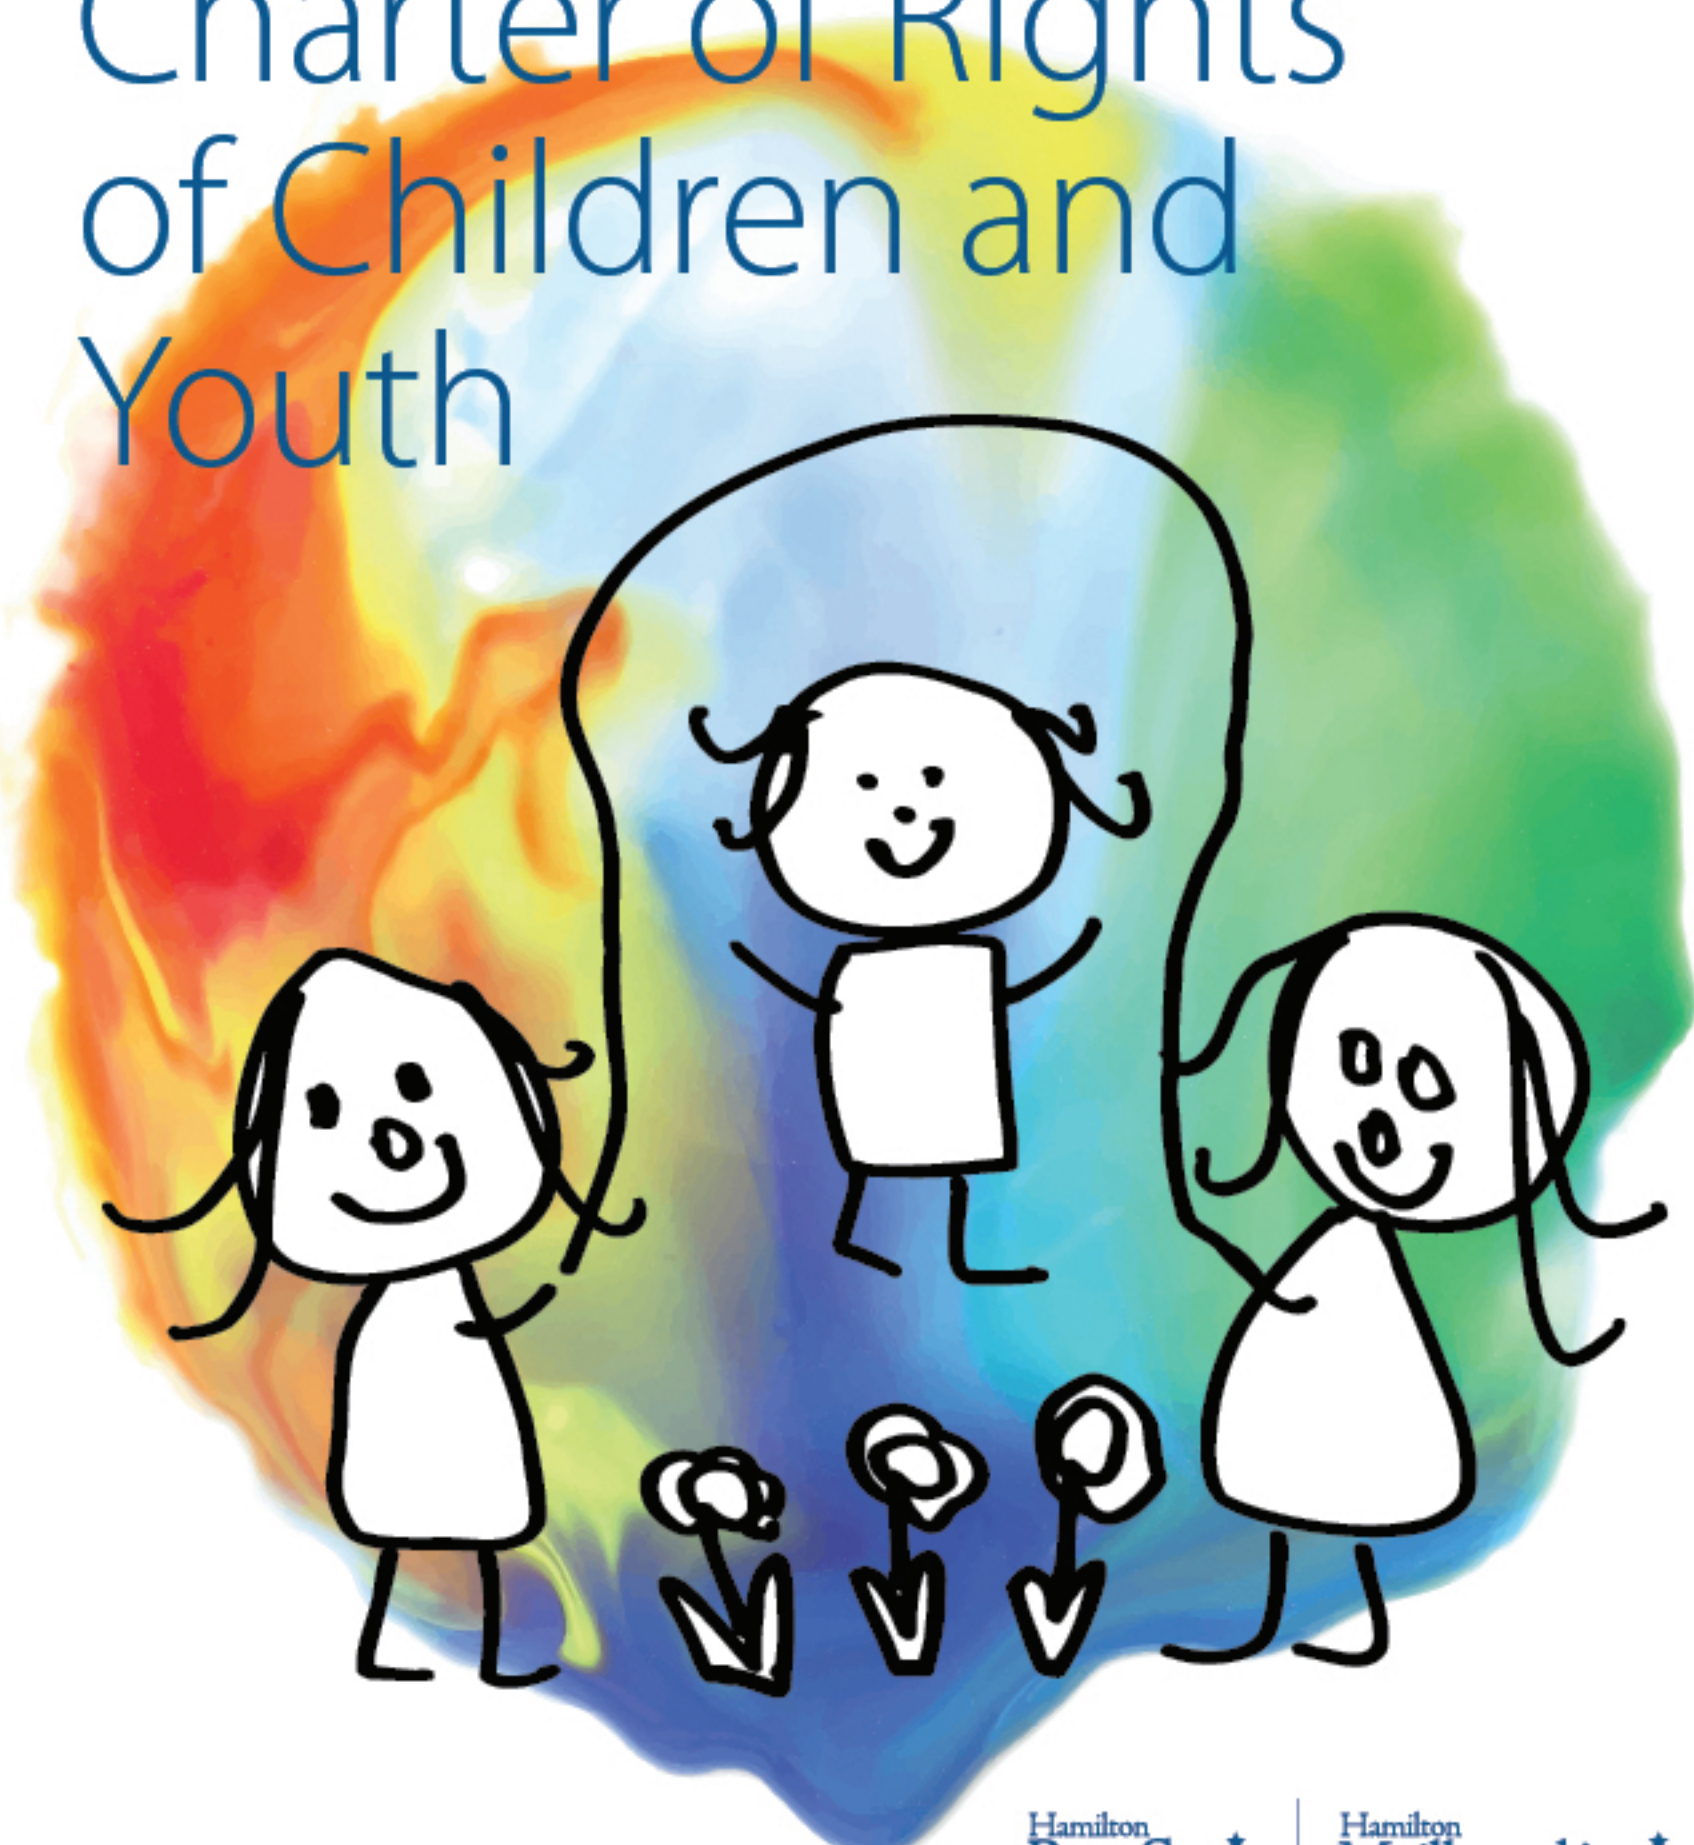

I have the right to special help like a wheelchair if I ever need it.

I have the right to express myself, my personality and thoughts without judgement.

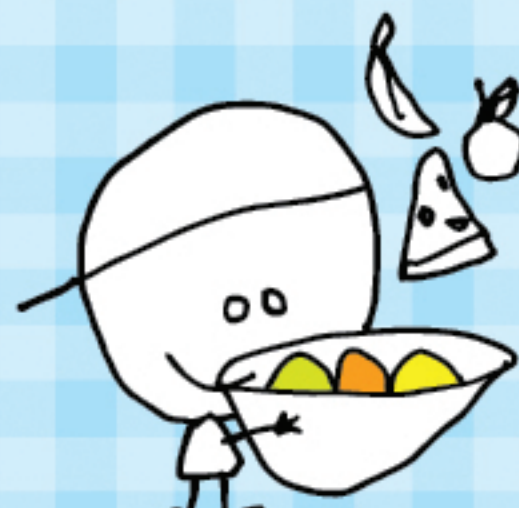

Hamilton's Charter of Rights of Children and Youth

I have the right to good food, and warm, clean clothes.

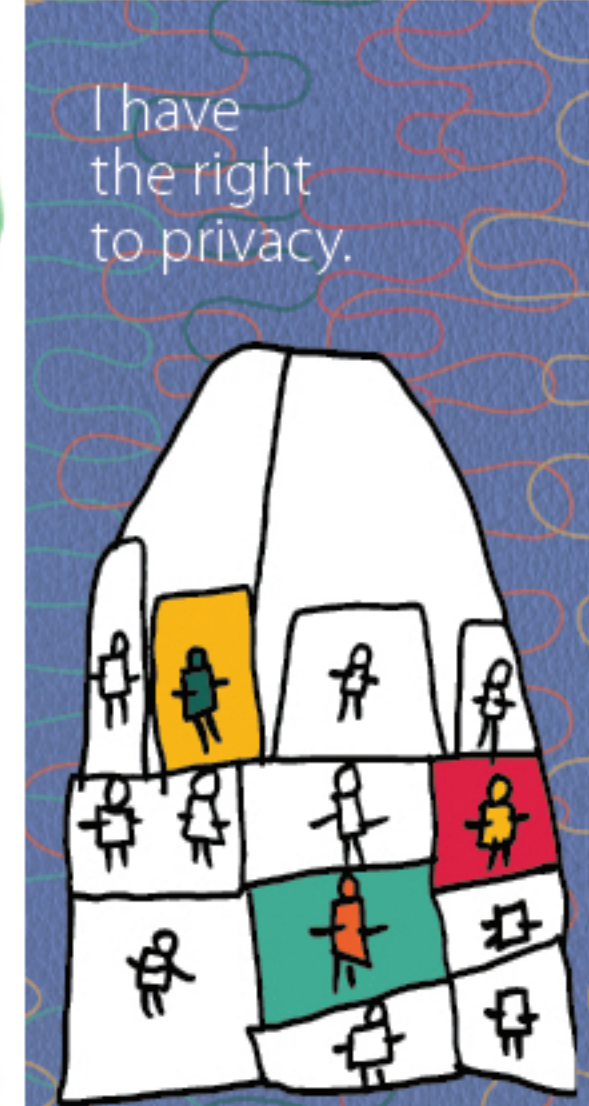

I have the right to have friends.

I have the right to live with and be cared for by family.

I have the right to privacy.

I have the right to play.

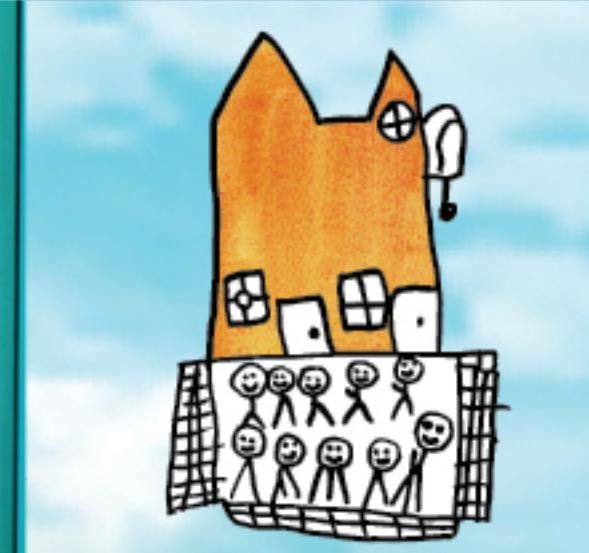

I have the right to care for living things.

I have the right to know about and practice my culture.

I have the right to be safe, secure, and healthy.

I have the right to be free from discrimination.

I have the right to rest.

And I have the right to be proud of who I am.
