About the Shirley Elford Emerging Artist Commission Prize

The City of Hamilton Arts Awards program is pleased to partner with the Hamilton Community Foundation to present the Shirley Elford Emerging Artist Commission Prize. Two emerging artists (practicing in any discipline) will each be given a $2000 commission fee to create an artwork that explores contemporary themes related to Hamilton's evolving identity. The commissions will be presented at the 2025 City of Hamilton Arts Awards Event. This Prize is awarded in memory of the late Shirley Elford, a Hamilton artist celebrated for her excellence in glass work and her work giving back to the local arts community and the community at large.

The Shirley Elford Emerging Artist Commission Prize recognizes artistic excellence. It is intended to support emerging artists in furthering their work and provide opportunities to promote and showcase their work.

About the City of Hamilton Arts Awards

The mission of the City of Hamilton Arts Awards Program is to recognize the full breadth of achievement of our local arts community, the individual artists and organizations who are its ambassadors, and the community members who support and engage in this work throughout our community. Award recipients and the winners of the Shirley Elford Emerging Artist Commission Prize will be announced publicly (event date TBD) in June 2024 in conjunction with Hamilton Arts Week.

Vision

The Arts Awards will serve to promote the City of Hamilton's pride in its arts community, to inspire and enhance success, to foster growth in the sector, and to develop the talent that drives this vital part of our city.

Values

The Arts Awards program will consistently promote the values of:

- inclusivity and diversity,
- a transparent and open process,
- community building and public engagement,
- and the core principle that the arts are central to our community's identity, economy, civic pride, and sustainability.

City of Hamilton Arts Awards Commitment to Inclusion and Representation

As Hamilton has seen many demographic, economic and cultural shifts over the past few decades, so has the city's arts sector and communities. The individuals and groups who make up this sector are diverse along many lines. They include Black, Indigenous, People of Colour, people with disabilities and LGBTQ2SI+ individuals and collectives at different stages in their artistic careers, and working in a wide diversity of disciplinary practices, and citizens practicing across Hamilton's 15 wards.

Hamilton's municipal Arts Awards program strives to represent the diversity of this sector through all aspects of the program including:

- Composition of the selection panels
- Outreach to key individuals, organizations and community groups to encourage applications
- Commissioning of artist programming for the Arts Awards Event / Celebration

Commission Details

The intention of this opportunity is to showcase contemporary, emerging art practices that are reflective of the broader Hamilton arts community and the city's evolving identity. The selected artists will be announced at the 2024 City of Hamilton Arts Awards and the commissioned artwork will be showcased at the 2025 City of Hamilton Arts Awards ceremony. This ceremony is typically a live event that attracts upwards of 300 people. There will be a variety of options to present artwork ranging from on-stage productions (e.g., performances of music, theatre, dance, spoken word, etc.) to installations and performances (e.g., sculpture, performance art, exhibition/displays, etc.) to screen-based presentations (e.g., short film, new media, etc.). This opportunity is open to artists practicing in all mediums however the commissioned work must be in a format that can be presented at a live event.

Additional Details

The artwork must be presented at the 2025 City of Hamilton Arts Awards, which will take place in early June (exact date TBD). It is anticipated that this will be an in-person event.

Due to time limitations at the event, if the artwork is a full-length play, album, film or other longer work, the commissioned artist may be asked to select an excerpt for presentation.

The commission fee is $2000. This fee includes the recipient's artist fee and all costs related to the creation/production of the artwork.

The Arts Awards program will provide support and resources to assist with the public presentation of the work (e.g. equipment rental, audio/visual equipment, artist fees for performers other than the commission recipient, staffing to assist with installation, etc.). A budget of approximately $500 per commission has been allocated for costs related to the presentation of the artwork.

The commissioned artists will retain all moral rights and copyright to the artwork. As part of the terms of the commission, the City will license the artworks for the promotion of and display at the Arts Awards event; the artist will take possession of the work following the event.

The commissioned artists will be expected to prepare an initial project proposal in November 2024 for feedback and to provide a more detailed proposal once additional event details and location are confirmed. The commission fee will be paid subject to the approval of the project proposal by the Director of Tourism and Culture, City of Hamilton or their designate.

Eligibility

- Individual artist who is 18 years of age or older or an artistic collective (e.g., band, duo, troupe, collaborative, etc.) whose members are 18 years of age or older. Note, performers under the age of 18 years are permitted provided the project leaders/lead applicants are 18 years or older.
